

Thursday 25 June @ 7.30pm

Canterbury Cathedral

Bridge Village Hall

The Cathedral's 'lost' wall paintings.

Part of a 15th century wall painting showing the legend of St Eustace.

Peter Genower, a cathedral guide and researcher, will explain that for centuries the Cathedral's walls glowed with rich colours and glorious paintings, but almost all were obliterated or destroyed during the reformation.

In his illustrated talk Peter will seek to bring those colourful walls back to life and to give us all an insight into how the Cathedral sparkled 500 years ago.

Admission £4 (including refreshments)
